

75 Cova Boulevard Hope Island

North facing waterfront

Look no further if you are seeking a north aspect waterfront home. This four bedroom property is absolutely perfect for retirees, families or better still to add to your investment portfolio with Hope Island consistently enjoying generous capital growth.

Only minutes from the Broadwater, close to Hope Island and Sanctuary Cove with its array of restaurants, cafes, shops and retail outlets. With schools and medical facilities all very close, this is the perfect residential hub to base your life in your new home.

This modern home has been built to perfection by incorporating the core fundamentals of a truly functional family home. Expansive living on the ground level provides for smooth indoor/outdoor connectivity to the generous patio and pool with water views. The lower level of the home is where you will find the media room and the office or 5th bedroom, a full bathroom, double garage with internal access and a spacious laundry. Positioned to be the hub of the living and dining areas, the kitchen has quality finishes, a walk-in pantry, generous bench tops and breakfast bar.
